

Letter of Recommendation for Mr. Constantinos Frangeskou

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation in support of Mr. Constantinos Frangeskou, whom I have had the opportunity to teach and mentor over the course of four academic semesters, in courses on Academic Writing [CS-209] and Professional Communication [CS-208]. During this time, I have closely observed his academic performance, project work, and professional development, and I can confidently attest to their strong character, work ethic, and potential for continued success.

In increasingly diverse and interdisciplinary contexts, Mr. Constantinos Frangeskou has shown strong cross-cultural awareness and sensitivity. He engages thoughtfully with different perspectives and contributes to inclusive and respectful environments. His commitment to public and community-oriented work is also evident, as he consistently aligns his efforts with broader societal impact.

In summary, I highly recommend Mr. Constantinos Frangeskou without reservation. He is a motivated, ethical, and capable individual who will undoubtedly be an asset to any academic or professional setting.

Please feel free to contact me should you require any further information.

Sincerely,

Panagiota Rizopoulou

Noni Rizopoulou

Special Research & Teaching Staff

University of Crete - Department of Computer Science

nrizop@csd.uoc.gr